PRODUCT DESIGNER | 0→1 STRATEGY & GROWTH

Duolingo and Remitly alum. Over 10 years turning ambiguous, high-stakes bets into durable growth systems across consumer scale (500M+ multilingual users) and regulated fintech. Native-level in three languages, experienced designing for global audiences. Informal design lead for a 4-person pod with hiring, promotion, and executive presentation experience.

EXPERIENCE

Remitly (United States, 2023–present) Senior Product Designer

- $408M processed volume, $8.74M revenue: 19pp lift in new-customer conversion (29% to 48%) and 93% conversion-to-payment by maturing the end-to-end SMB experience.
- 0→1 seed and lead designer: Took Remitly Business from a hidden web experiment to a core company OKR within 12 months. Lead a pod of 4 designers; influence hiring, promotions, and exec readouts.
- Switchback: Identified a systemic misrouting risk, advocated PO prioritization; drove 11-12% improvement in transaction completion and 33% reduction in accidental business registrations.
- Survivability architecture: Async onboarding, checkpoints, and compliance forks let customers complete KYB/EDD without abandoning the funnel. Approval rates grew from 29% to 52%.
- International expansion: Adapted flows for UK and Canada launches; double-digit growth in active business users in both new markets. Partnered with Legal and Compliance to localize for regulatory requirements.

Duolingo (USA, 2015–2022) Sr. Community Manager, Comm. Product Design
